Memo : Operations Announcement

Date: Wednesday 20th January

From: Campbell Stott

To: WLG / Dan Murphy's Team

We are pleased to announce that Angus Armstrong, our National Operations Manager, has been given the opportunity to step into the role of Acting Director of Fuel and Metro's (Small Stores). Angus has been the National Operations Manager for Dan Murphy's since August 2013. Previously he has worked extensively across both retail and fast food, having held senior roles with Trader Joe's in the USA and with KFC in Australia.

Angus has worked tirelessly with the Dan Murphy's business to drive our vision of being the World's best drinks retailer and has made a significant contribution to the overall store operations environment.

Daniel Ellul will join our team as National Operations Manager (Acting). Daniel is currently working as Head of Operations Transformation in our Supermarkets business and has had significant experience in the Supermarkets business in Operations roles. Daniel comes to us with a wealth of retail experience and we look forward to having him in the team.

Please join me in congratulating Angus on this opportunity and welcoming Daniel.

Kind regards,

Campbell Stott

General Manager, Dan Murphy's
